

FIRST WEEK UPDATE as of Thursday 1/25

CSc-155 Gordon

As predicted in my previous update, we will hold class Friday 1/26 on ZOOM.

The links are on Canvas, repeated here:

Section 1, Friday 10am - <https://csus.zoom.us/j/84823105715>

Section 2, Friday 11am - <https://csus.zoom.us/j/87213164939>

I would prefer that you attend your assigned section, as I will be taking roll using the waiting room. If you are trying to add the class, you may attend either section.

BRING YOUR QUESTIONS.

NOTE – I had strabismus (eye) surgery two days ago, and my eyes are extremely red.

As a result, I look like Dracula from a horror movie – try not to be alarmed with how I will look on Zoom.

I also have a little cold, so I am likely to sound pretty terrible too. But I am OK.

Normal in-person in-class meetings will begin next Monday, 1/29 in RVR-5029.

It is critical that you all monitor your CSUS EMAIL regularly. This is how I send out important notices.

See you tomorrow on Zoom!
